Policy Statement

The Journal of Sustainable Applied Innovation & Research (J-SAIR) is a peer-reviewed scientific journal operating under the Diamond Open Access model. All accepted and published articles are made immediately, permanently, and freely available to the global scientific community and the public, without financial, legal, or technical barriers.

1. Legal Framework and Foundations of Free Availability

This policy is grounded in international open science initiatives, including the Budapest Open Access Initiative (BOAI) and the Berlin Declaration on Open Access to Knowledge in the Sciences and Humanities, aligned with Colombian intellectual property and science regulations:

- Law 23 of 1982 (Colombian Copyright Law) and Decision 351 of the Andean Community of Nations (CAN): Protect and guarantee the moral rights of authors over their intellectual creations.
- Law 1286 of 2009 and Law 2162 of 2021 (Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation - MinCiencias): Promote the democratization of knowledge, open science, and the social appropriation of technology and innovation (CTi).

2. Licensing and Author Rights (Creative Commons)

- Retention of Copyright: Authors retain full ownership of their moral and economic copyright. Authors grant J-SAIR a non-exclusive license for the first publication, indexing, and dissemination of the manuscript.
- User License: All content published by J-SAIR is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0). Under this license, third parties are free to download, share, and redistribute the material, provided that:
 - ✓ Full and explicit credit is given to the original author(s).
 - ✓ J-SAIR is properly cited as the original venue of publication.
 - ✓ The material is not used for commercial or lucrative purposes.

3. Self-Archiving and Repository Policy (Green Open Access)

- No Embargo Period: J-SAIR permits and encourages immediate self-archiving. Authors are authorized to deposit the final published version (Publisher's PDF as formatted and issued by J-SAIR) in:
 - Academic institutional repositories.
 - National or thematic repositories (e.g., RediCOL, La Referencia).
 - Professional and academic research networks (e.g., ResearchGate, Academia.edu, ORCID).
- Self-Archiving Requirements: Deposits must include the full bibliographic citation and the official persistent URL (or assigned DOI once available).
- Persistent Identifiers (DOI Note): As an emerging publication, J-SAIR is currently implementing its persistent identifier infrastructure. Articles are currently assigned unique, stable landing page URLs on the official domain (<https://www.j-sair.com/>). Upon completion of registration with registration agencies (such as Crossref), DOIs will be retroactively and prospectively assigned to all published articles at no cost to authors.

4. Processing Charges Article (APC-Free)

In strict adherence to the Diamond Open Access framework:

- J-SAIR does not charge any fees for manuscript submission, peer review, editorial processing, typesetting, or publication (No APCs / Article Processing Charges).
- Reading, downloading, sharing, and distributing all published articles is completely free of charge for readers, libraries, and institutions globally.
